

ANOTHER FEATHER IN OUR CAP!

As we feature in the Commonwealth at 70
Commemorative Album:
From Westminster to the World

On 28th April 1949, the London Declaration was signed, marking the birth of the modern Commonwealth.

A unique association of 53 independent states, both small and large, the Commonwealth consults and cooperates in the common interests of its 2.4 billion peoples, and in the promotion of international understanding.

Written by academics and experts, The Commonwealth at 70 is the History of Parliament Trust's official commemorative album to mark this anniversary. It also offers an insight into the major Commonwealth institutions, organisations and initiatives.

We are proud and delighted to share that the Aditya Birla World Academy is the only Indian Institution to be featured in the commemorative album, which was launched on the 25th of June, 2019, at Westminster Abbey, United Kingdom.

We thank each one of you, who have been a part of our journey. We couldn't have done this without you.

Nancy Birla